CONGRATULATIONS—We are pleased to notify you that you have met the written test requirements for the general register of the Federal Service Entrance Examination.

The written test is only a part of this examination. Your final eligibility can be determined only after a review of your education and experience. If you passed the management intern test, your final eligibility will be determined after confidential inquiries to your references and your participation in an interview, following review of your education and experience.

Please read carefully the instructions on the back of this letter and make every effort to return your application(s) to the address shown at the head of this letter as soon as possible, preferably within the next five days. We urge you to return your application promptly so that it can be processed together with those of other persons who took the written test on the same date.

This examination is designed to fill a wide variety of positions which offer challenge, advancement, and rewarding experiences. We hope that your participation will lead to a satisfactory career in the Federal Government.
